LEGAL DATABASES

The library gives you subscription access to the following databases:

- Westlaw
- Lexis
- HeinOnline
- CALI
- New York Times Online
- LegalTrac
- MCLE Online

Please speak to a librarian if you have questions about these resources.

RESEARCH CONSULTATIONS

We are here to help! You may email librarians, stop by the library with questions, or make an appointment for more extensive research. We are happy to show you how to use print materials or online databases to help guide your research.

COMPUTERS AND PRINTING

The library has a printer on every floor. Each semester a print allotment is allocated to your UMass Pass. Tip: Lexis offers free printing! Pick up your free prints at the circulation desk.

STUDY SPACE

The library offers space for both group study (first floor) and silent study (lower level and second floor). Private rooms are available on a first come-first served basis. We hope that you will use our white boards and collaborative learning stations.

STUDY AIDS & RESERVE BOOKS

The library keeps one copy of each required book behind the circulation desk. These reserve books are convenient when you have forgotten your copy or you need to scan a few pages. They may be checked out for two hours at a time. Study aids are also kept behind the circulation desk and circulate for a period of 48 hours. Study aids often include outlines, multiple choice questions, essay questions, and examples and explanations. They will help you prepare for class and exams.

INTERLIBRARY LOAN

Need a book or article that we do not have in the collection? No problem! Ask a librarian to request the item.

PRIMO – THE ONLINE LIBRARY CATALOG

Access it from our website <https://www.umassd.edu/law/library/>

Primo does more than locate print materials on our shelves. Here are a few features you might not know about:

- Locate articles that are housed in multidisciplinary databases like JSTOR, PsychINFO, Academic OneFile, and more!
- Search the Main Campus Library collection as well as the Law collection.
- Look up a book you would like to check out, and use the “Virtual Browse” tab to see what else is on the same shelf (and on the same topic) as that book.
- Start your research here! Plug in keywords to return results that come from the web, the shelves, dissertations, newspapers, etc. without the clutter that a Google search provides.
- Look for a journal by name, and Primo links you to the resource that contains that journal.

NATIONAL LIBRARY WEEK

She's Back!

Jessica returns from maternity leave this semester! Stop by to say hello.

RENOVATION COMING SOON...

Changes to our library space are expected to begin toward the end of this semester. We're excited for a new look, comfortable seating, and a Café in the library!

We will keep you apprised of any changes to library offices or services as the plans for construction become concrete (pun intended). If you have any questions, feel free to ask!

DIGITAL SIGNAGE REMINDER

If you have a law school event to announce, we can upload your advertisement to the law school screens.

Here are a few things to keep in mind about your announcement:

- PowerPoint is the best format for digital announcements. Email us your slides as attachments.
- Please email both Emma and Jessica to ensure that we can get your slide visible asap.
- Please avoid too much text on your slides. Text-heavy slides can be difficult to read on the screens.

To advertise your event on the monitors, please email Emma Wood and Jessica Almeida.

If there are any books you would like to see in our collection, please pass your suggestions on to a librarian.
